

Frog Workshop & Walk

Saturday 13 May, 3:30pm - 6pm

Jervis Bay Maritime Museum / Wirrecoo Walking Trail

Would you like to learn more about the frogs of the Shoalhaven, including the endangered Green & Golden Bell Frog, and how to attract them to your backyard?

Join Conservation Volunteers Australia for an informative frog workshop at the Jervis Bay Maritime Museum with presentations from a frog biologist and enthusiast. Then, embark on a guided evening walk along the Wirrecoo Walking Trail, where we will look for frogs in their natural habitat.

3.30pm - 5pm: Workshop presentations & light refreshments

5pm - 6pm: Wetland walk

Cost: Free

This project is funded by the Australian Government's Biodiversity Fund

Places are limited and bookings are essential!
